撒該下來

！

A cinematic still from a film depicting Jesus, with long dark hair and a beard, wearing a light-colored robe, smiling as he sits at a table with several people. The setting is a dimly lit room with a warm, golden light source from the right. The table is laden with food, including bread, grapes, and small clay cups. A woman in a brown headscarf is visible on the right, and other men are seated around the table. The overall mood is intimate and joyful.
